Donald Trump calls off North Carolina rally due to incoming storm

Wilmington. US Republican presidential candidate Donald Trump abruptly cancelled a campaign rally in North Carolina on Saturday because of an incoming storm, telling the crowd he was "devastated" and promising to return to the battleground state soon. Trump called into the outdoor rally from his private jet about 30 minutes before he was due to appear at an airport in Wilmington, instructing everyone to leave immediately because of safety concerns as lightning flashed overhead. 'I'm devastated that this could happen but we want to keep everybody safe," Trump said, his voice amplified by speakers to thousands of supporters, many of whom had lined up since early morning in hot and humid conditions.

sad," Trump said. The event was due to occur after the first week of Trump's historic criminal trial in New York stemming from a hush-money payment to a porn star. With jury selection completed, opening statements were expected to begin on Monday. Trump, who is set to face Democratic President Joe Biden in the November 5 general election, also faces criminal cases in Washington, Georgia and Florida, but the New York case is the only one certain to go to trial this year. Both the Biden and Trump campaigns have set their sights on winning North Carolina, one of six or seven swing states that will likely determine the outcome in November. Trump narrowly won the state in 2020 over Biden.

2 Japanese navy helicopters, carrying 8, 'crashed' in Pacific Ocean, search on

Tokyo. Two Japanese navy helicopters carrying eight crewmembers were believed to have crashed in the Pacific Ocean south of Tokyo during a nighttime training exercise, and rescuers were searching for the missing, Japan's defence minister said.he two SH-60K choppers belonging to the Maritime Self Defense Force and carrying four crew each, lost contact late Saturday near Torishima island in the Pacific about 600 kilometres (370 miles) south of Tokyo, Defence Minister Minoru Kihara told reporters. One of the eight crewmembers was recovered from the waters, but his or her condition was unknown. Officials were still searching for the other seven. The cause of the crash was not immediately known, Kihara said, adding that officials are prioritising the rescue operationThe MSDF deployed eight warships and five aircraft for the search and rescue of the missing crew. They recovered fragments believed to be from one of the SH-60Ks. Kihara said."We believe the helicopters have crashed," he said. The helicopters, twin-engine, multi-mission aircraft designed by Sikorsky and known as Seahawk, were on nighttime anti-submarine training in the waters. Kihara said. One lost contact at 10:38 p.m. (1338 GMT) after sending an emergency signal. The other aircraft lost contact about 25 minutes later. One belonged to an air base in Nagasaki, and the other at a base in Tokushima prefecture. The SH-60K aircraft is usually deployed on destroyers for anti-submarine missions.

Saturday's training only involved the Japanese navy and was not part of a multinational exercise, defence officials said. They said no foreign aircraft or warships were spotted in the area. Japan, under its 2022 security strategy, has been accelerating its military buildup and fortifying deterrence in the southwestern Japanese islands in the Pacific and East China Sea to counter threats from China's increasingly assertive military activities. Japan in recent years has extensively conducted its own naval exercises as well as joint drills with its ally the United States and other partners.

Saturday's apparent crash comes a year after a Ground Self-Defense Force UH-60 Blackhawk crashed off the southwestern Japanese island of Miyako, leaving all 10 crewmembers dead. In January 2022, a Air Selfdefence F-15 fighter jet crashed off the north central coast of Japan, killing two crew. Japan's NHK public television said no weather advisories were issued in the area at the time of Saturday's crash.

US House approves aid package for Ukraine and Israel

Washington. The House swiftly approved $95 billion in foreign aid for Ukraine, Israel and other US allies in a rare Saturday session as Democrats and Republicans banded together after months of hard-right resistance over renewed American support for repelling Russia's invasWith an overwhelming vote, the $61 billion in aid for Ukraine passed in a matter of minutes, a strong showing as American lawmakers race to deliver a fresh round of US support to the war-torn ally. Many Democrats cheered on the House floor and waved blueand-yellow flags of Ukraine.

Aid to Israel and the other allies also won approval by healthy margins, as did a measure to clamp down on the popular platform TikTok, with unique coalitions forming to push the separate bills forward. The whole package will go to the Senate, which could pass it as soon as Tuesday. President Joe Biden has promised to sign it immediately. "We did our work here, and I think history will judge it well," said a weary Speaker Mike Johnson, R-La., who risked his own job to marshal the package to passage.Biden, in a statement, thanked Johnson, Democratic leader Hakeem Jeffries and the bipartisan coalition of lawmakers "who voted to put our national security first." I urge the Senate to quickly send this package to my desk so that I can sign it into law and we can quickly send weapons and equipment to Ukraine to meet their urgent battlefield needs," the president said.President Volodymyr Zelenskyy of Ukraine said he was "grateful" to both parties in the House and "personally Speaker Mike Johnson for the decision that keeps history on the right track," he said on X, formerly Twitter.

US House votes to force TikTok's China-based owner to sell stake or face ban

Washington. The House of Representatives passed a legislation on Saturday that would ban TikTok in the country if the popular social media platform's China-based owner doesn't sell its stake within a year, but don't expect the app to go away anytime soon. The decision by House Republicans to include TikTok as part of a larger foreign aid package, a priority for President Joe Biden with broad congressional support for Ukraine and Israel, fast-tracked the ban after an earlier version had stalled in the Senate.A standalone bill with a shorter, six-month selling deadline passed the House in March by an overwhelming bipartisan vote as both Democrats and Republicans voiced national security concerns about the app's owner, the Chinese technology firm ByteDance Ltd.

The modified measure, passed by a 360-58 vote, now goes to the Senate after negotiations that lengthened the timeline for the company to sell to nine months, with a possible additional three months if a sale is in progress.Legal challenges could extend that timeline even further. The company has indicated that it would likely go to court to try and block the law if it passes, arguing it would deprive the app's millions of users of their First Amendment rights. Tik Tok has lobbied hard against the legislation, pushing the app's 170 million US users -- many of whom are young -- to call Congress and voice opposition. But the ferocity of the pushback angered lawmakers on Capitol Hill, where there is broad concern about Chinese threats to the US and where few members use the platform themselves. "We will not stop fighting and advocating for you," TikTok CEO Shou Zi Chew said in a video that was posted on the platform last month and directed toward the app's users."We will continue to do all we can, including exercising our legal rights, to protect this amazing platform that we have built with you."The bill's quick path through Congress is extraordinary because it targets one company and because Congress has taken a hands-off approach to tech regulation for decades. Lawmakers have failed to act despite efforts to protect children online, safeguard users' privacy and make companies more liable for content posted on their platforms, among other measures. But the TikTok ban reflects widespread concerns from lawmakers about China.

Members of both parties, along with intelligence officials, have worried that Chinese authorities could force ByteDance to hand over American user data or direct the company to suppress or boost TikTok content favourable to its shared American user data with the Chinese government or tinkered with the company's popular algorithm, which influences what Americans see.The company has good reason to think a legal challenge could be successful, having seen some success in previous legal fights over its operations in the US.In November 2023, a federal judge blocked a Montana law that would ban TikTok use across the state after the company and five content creators who use the platform sued.In 2020, federal courts blocked an executive order issued by then-President Donald Trump to ban TikTok after the company sued on the grounds that the order violated free speech and due process rights. His administration brokered a deal that would have had U.S. corporations Oracle and Walmart take a large stake in TikTok.The sale never went through for a number of reasons; one was China, which imposed stricter export controls on its technlogy providers. Dozens of states and the federal government have put in place TikTok bans

US aid for Ukraine 'will cause more damage, deaths', warns Russia

world. Kremlin spokesman Dmitry Peskov said on Saturday that US House of Representatives' approval of security aid to Ukraine would lead to more damage and deaths in the conflict

The decision "will make the United States of America richer, further ruin Ukraine and result in the deaths of even more Ukrainians, the fault of the Kyiv regime," Peskov was quoted as saying by Russian news agencies.

The House approved a legislative package providing $60.84 billion to Ukraine, including $23 billion to replenish US weapons, stocks and facilities.he package now goes to the US Senate, which passed a similar measure two months ago, for expected approval next week. It then is passed on to President Joe Biden to sign.Peskov also said that provisions in the legislation allowing the US world. A North Korean delegation led by a highranking agricultural official is visiting Russia, the North's official KCNA news agency said on Sunday, in the latest exchange between Moscow and Pyongyang, which is grappling with chronic food shortages. Vice premier of the cabinet Ri Chol Man left for Russia on Saturday leading an Agricultural Commission delegation, KCNA said. The Russian ambassador to North Korea, Alexander Matsegora, said in a Facebook post Ri's schedule will be "very heavy." Ties between the two countries have strengthened dramatically following North Korean leader Kim Jong Un's visit to Russia's far east in September and a summit with President Vladimir Putin.

At a major policy-setting meeting of the ruling Workers' Party in December, Kim devoted a considerable portion of his remarks to the need to boost agricultural productivity, calling for modernization of farm equipment and improved irrigation system. While he touted success in efforts to improve farm production, North Korea has long grappled with food shortages, in part due

Israelis Urged To Remember Hostages Held In Gaza With Empty Chair For Seder

Tel Aviv: The families of hostages held in the Gaza Strip appealed on Saturday for Jewish Israelis to leave an empty chair at their traditional Seder meals marking the beginning of Passover on Monday. "The Seder night is approaching and this year we will have to leave an empty chair," said Ofir Angrest, whose brother Matan was kidnapped on October 7, during the southern Israel on October 7. Israel believes that 129 remain in Gaza, including 34 who are presumed dead.

Around 100 were released during a ceasefire in November.Sofi Cohen Ben Dor, daughter of the famous Israeli spy Eli Cohen, also spoke at the gathering. Her father was hanged in Damascus in 1965 after infiltrating elite circles in Syria in the early 1960s and his body was never returned to Israel."His body is still kept for 60 years in an unknown place in Syria. Israel did not create the opportunity to return his body for burial in Israel," she to prolonged UN sanctions over its weapons programmes and seasonal natural disasters.Ri, who is considered a career technocrat in the agricultural field according to the South Korean government database, was promoted to chairman of the Agricultural Commission at the Workers' Party meeting. The two countries have exchanged a number of delegations since their leaders' meeting in September and the frequency has increased in recent months, according to North Korean state media.

US and South Korean officials have expressed concern that the centrepiece of closer cooperation is military, accusing the North of shipping weapons to Russia for use in its war in Ukraine.Both Moscow and Pyongyang have denied the accusations even though their leaders have vowed to deepen military cooperation.

14 Palestinians killed during Israeli raid in West Bank, Gaza attack continues

Palestinian health authorities said at least 14 Palestinians were killed during the raid, one of the heaviest casualty totals in the West Bank in months.

Gaza/Jerusalem. Israeli forces killed 14 Palestinians during a raid in the occupied West Bank on Saturday, while an ambulance driver was killed as he went to pick up wounded from a separate attack by violent Jewish settlers, Palestinian authorities said.Israeli forces began an extended raid in the early hours of Friday in the Nur Shams area, near the flashpoint Palestinian city of Tulkarm and were still exchanging fire with armed fighters well into Saturday.Israeli military vehicles massed and bursts of gunfire were heard, while at least three drones were seen hovering above Nur Shams, an area housing refugees and their descendants from the 1948 war that accompanied the creation of the state of Israel.

The Tulkarm Brigades, which groups forces from numerous Palestinian factions, said its fighters exchanged fire with Israeli forces on Saturday. The West Bank, a kidney shaped area about 100 km (60 miles) long and 50 km wide that has been at the heart of the Israeli-Palestinian conflict since it was seized by Israel in the 1967 Middle East war. The Gaza war has overshadowed continuing violence in the territory, including regular army raids on militant groups, rampages by Jewish settlers in Palestinian villages, and street attacks by Palestinians on Israelis. Thousands of Palestinians have been arrested and hundreds killed during regular operations by Israeli army and police since the start of the Gaza war, most members of armed groups, but also stone-throwing youths and uninvolved civilians.On Saturday, Palestinian health authorities said at least 14 Palestinians, two of whom were identified by Palestinian sources and officials as a gunman and a 16 year-old boy, were killed during the raid, one of the heaviest casualty totals in the West Bank in months. Another man was killed on Friday.The Israeli military said a number of militants were killed or arrested during the raid, and at least four soldiers were wounded in exchanges of fire.

In a separate incident, the Palestinian health ministry said a 50-year-old ambulance driver was killed by Israeli gunfire near the village of Al-Sawiya, south of the city of Nablus, as he was making his way to transport people injured during the attack on the village. It was not immediately clear whether he was shot by settlers. There was no immediate comment from the military.

GAZASTRIKES CONTINUE

In Gaza, where fighting has continued despite the withdrawal of most of Israel's combat forces earlier this month from southern areas, the death toll passed 34,000, Palestinian health authorities said on Saturday.Israeli strikes hit the southern city of Rafah, where over one million Palestinians are sheltering, as well as Al-Nuseirat in central Gaza, where at least five houses were destroyed, and the Al-Jabalia area in the north, health officials and Hamas media said.In Rafah, a strike hit a house and killed a father, daughter and pregnant mother, Hamas and Palestinian media outlets said. Doctors at the Kuwaiti hospital were able to save the baby, medics said, making the baby the family's only surviving member. Five other Palestinians were killed in a separate Israeli air strike on the city before midnight, health officials said. The Israeli military said troops were carrying out raids in central Gaza, where they were engaged in close quarter combat with Palestinian fighters. Overall, Israeli strikes in Gaza killed 37 Palestinians and wounded 68 over the past 24 hours, Palestinian health authorities said.

DVC to supply addition 250 MVA power to BSL to support its expansion plans

by Ashis Sinha

RNS: Damodar Valley Corporation (DVC) will provide an additional 250 MVA (Megavolt-Ampere) power to Bokaro Steel Limited (BSL), a unit of Steel Authority of India Limited

A Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) was signed between DVC and BSL officials at Bokaro Steel City on Saturday.

Currently, DVC is supplying 220 MVA of power to BSL. However, with this new agreement, the additional supply is set to commence from the financial year 2027-28. This decision is seen as a response to the anticipated expansion of BSL, necessitating an increased demand for power.

IRDAI eliminates health insurance age limit

Implements major changes in pre-existing disease policies

RNS I New Delhi: The Insurance Regulatory and Development Authority of India (IRDAI) has made significant changes to health insurance regulations, including the elimination of the age limit for purchasing health insurance plans. This decision, set to take effect on April 1, 2024, marks a major shift in the industry.

Previously, individuals aged 65 and older were restricted from purchasing new health insurance coverage. However, the recent regulatory changes now allow individuals of any age to access new health insurance coverage.

In a notice issued by IRDAI, insurers are encouraged to expand their services to cater to various demographic groups, such as senior citizens, students, children, and maternity needs. The aim is to promote inclusivity in healthcare coverage by offering individualized plans that meet specific agerelated requirements.

The decision reflects IRDAI's commitment to improving the availability of affordable healthcare coverage across all age groups and enhancing accessibility to such coverage. By removing age restrictions, IRDAI hopes to stimulate innovation among insurance companies, leading to a wider range of product offerings and improved customer service.

Additionally, IRDAI mandates that health insurance carriers develop customized plans for older individuals, including dedicated channels for managing claims and complaints from senior citizens. This proactive approach aims to address the unique healthcare needs of elderly policyholders. Industry professionals have welcomed the potential of this regulatory reform to extend healthcare coverage to individuals over the age of 65. With established underwriting procedures, insurance companies can now offer coverage to senior citizens based on affordability and viability criteria. Another significant reform prohibits insurance companies from denying coverage to individuals with severe medical conditions such as cancer, heart or renal failure, or AIDS. The waiting period for coverage of pre-existing conditions has also been reduced from forty-eight months to thirty-six months. After this period, all pre-existing conditions must be covered, regardless of initial disclosure.

Furthermore, IRDAI has mandated a transition from indemnity-based health policies, which reimburse hospital bills, to benefit-based policies, which provide predetermined payments upon the diagnosis of covered illnesses. This change aims to enhance the clarity and predictability of insurance products, ensuring that policyholders receive timely and transparent benefits.

PM Says Congress Turned "Tech City Into Tanker City", Siddaramaiah Replies

Chief Minister Siddaramaiah has asked where the Prime Minister was when Karnataka suffered due to floods and droughts.

Bengaluru: Weeks after Bengaluru made national headlines for a crippling water crisis, with visuals of people queuing up near tankers flashing on TV screens, Prime Minister Narendra Modi has launched a scathing attack on the ruling Congress in Karnataka, saying the party turned "tech city into a tanker city". Hitting back, Chief Minister Siddaramaiah has asked where the Prime Minister was when Karnataa suffered due to floods and droughts. The 28 Lok Sabha seats in Karnataka are voting in two phases in this election, with the polling due on April 26 and May 7. All Bengaluru seats will go to polls on April 26.At a rally in the city days before polling, the Prime Minister said he wants to take the country ahead and accused the Congress of being "anti-investment, antientrepreneurship, anti-private sector, antitaxpayer, anti-wealth creator".

"Modi says he will make the country a green energy hub, pharma hub, electronics hub, electrical vehicle hub, semiconductor hub, and a global innovation hub so that India becomes a hub of Global economy. But the people of Congress and the INDI alliance say they will remove Modi," he said. "It is Modi's guarantee that after 5G, we will now launch 6G, they say they will remove Modi. It is Modi's guarantee that we will bring AI, but they say they will remove Modi. It is Modi's guarantee that after Chandrayaan, we will now make India proud of Gaganyaan, they say, they will remove Modi. Congress is anti-youth because it is anti-investment, it is anti-entrepreneurship, it is anti-private sector, it is anti-taxpayer, it is anti-wealth creator," he added. The Prime Minister said the BJP and Janata Dal-Secular have come together to fulfil the dreams of Karnataka's

I guarantee that your dreams are my resolve. My life is dedicated to you and the country. I promise 24X7 for 2047," he said, referring to the goal of making India a developed country by 2047. "Congress has turned tech city into a tanker city. The budget is being cut from agriculture to urban infrastructure. Congress is only focused on corruption, and not on the problems of Bengaluru. Only the projects of the central government are moving ahead fast," he said. "The kind of thoughts and ideology being promoted by Congress government in Karnataka is very dangerous. Our daughters are being attacked, bombs are exploding in markets, and people are being attacked for listening to religious songs, these incidents are not common. I urge my brothers and sisters to stay very alert of the Congress," he added. The statements come in the wake of the murder of a Congress leader's 21-year-old daughter in Hubbali, and a blast in Bengaluru's Rameshwaram Cafe and the thrashing of three youngsters, allegedly for raising "Jai Shri Ram" slogans.

In a sharp response, Chief Minister Siddaramaiah posted on X, "Claims of working 24x7 for the people, yet where was he during Karnataka's floods and droughts? So, what's the real story behind this '24x7'? Sounds like it's all PR, all the time!"The Chief Minister also hit back at the Prime Minister's remarks in Karnataka's Chikkaballapur, where he said Karnataka is the biggest example of how the Congress "deceives" the farmers."We started the PM Kisan Samman Nidhi scheme for small and marginal farmers. When Karnataka had a BJP government, the farmers of the state received? 10000 each, 6,000 from the central government and? 4000 from Karnataka's BJP government. But as soon as Congress formed government in the state, it stopped giving ? 4000 to the farmers," the Prime Minister said.

The Chief Minister replied that the Prime Minister must ask his conscience if he is really a well-wisher of farmers. Referring to the 2020-21 farmers' movement on Delhi borders, he asked about 700 farmers who died during the protest and questioned the Prime Minister's moral position to talk about farmers. The Centre, he said, was still not ready to fulfill the farmers' demand for a law to guarantee Minimum Support Price and has imposed GST on seeds and fertiliser. The BJP, he said, was anti-farmer from the beginning. "It is the party of capitalists, businessmen and traders. Anti-farmer poison is in the DNA of this party," he said, questioning what the Narendra Modi government has given to Karnataka farmers during its 10-year-rule.He said Karnataka's farmers are intelligent enough to understand who their well-wisher is and will teach "anti-farmer" forces a lesson

Nitish Kumar's veiled dig at Lalu Yadav for having 'too many children'

While campaigning for an NDA candidate in Banmankhi, Bihar Chief Minister Nitish Kumar took a jibe at RJD chief Lalu Yadav and said he "produced so many children".

New Delhi: Bihar Chief Minister Nitish Kumar has triggered a controversy for taking a jibe at RJD chief and former Chief Minister Lalu Prasad Yadav for having "too many children". The Chief Minister slammed Lalu Yadav for involving his children in politics, stating that it hinders productivity. Speaking at an election rally in Banmankhi, Nitish Kumar on Saturday took a dig at Lalu Yadav and said, "He appointed his wife Yadav's wife, Rabri Devi, taking up the role of when he was removed. Now, it is his children these days. He has produced so many offspring. Does anyone need to produce that many offspring? But he did. Now he has involved their sons, daughters, and everyone".

Bihar Chief Minister in 1997 after her husband faced corruption charges.Lalu Yadav's son Tejashwi Yadav was Deputy Chief Minister of Bihar when Nitish Kumar left the NDA in 2022 and formed the government. He lost his post after Nitish Kumar snapped ties with the RJD and went back to the NDA earlier this year. Further, Lalu Yadav's two daughters, Rohini Acharya and Misa Bharti, have been fielded by the RJD as Lok Sabha candidates from the Saran and Pataliputra seats respectively. Nitish Kumar accused Lalu Yadav's children of merely working to "trigger headlines with their sensational remarks".

Misa Bharti reacted to Nitish Kumar's statement and said the voters of Bihar will evaluate his remark. She appeared perplexed when asked about the remark and said, "I'm not sure what to say about my Chachaji. He is spearheading the onslaught against us after Prime Minister Narendra Modi stopped commenting".

Devendra Fadnavis promised to groom Aaditya as Chief Minister: Uddhav Thackeray

Mumbai. Shiv Sena (UBT) leader Uddhav Thackeray on Saturday claimed the then chief minister Devendra Fadnavis had told him in 2019 that he would groom his son Aaditya Thackeray as the next Chief Minister of Maharashtra as part of the power-sharing agreement between the two parties. Thackeray also said Fadnavis, a senior BJP leader, had told him that he would move to the Centre in the next two to three years. Addressing a rally in Dharavi, Thackeray claimed the then BJP chief Amit Shah had come to Matoshree, the private residence of the Thackerays, to seek an alliance with Shiv Sena (undivided). At that time, Fadnavis was made to sit outside the room of late Bal Thackeray while the two leaders (Shah and Thackeray) discussed modalities," he claimed.It was assured to me that the post of chief minister will be shared for 2.5 years (between BJP and Sena-undivided), he said."Later, Devendra Fadnavis told me, Uddhav Ji, I will groom Aaditya for 2.5 years. We can make him CM after 2.5 years. I told him (Fadnavis) that he (Aaditya) is just starting his electoral career. Do not put anything like this in his mind," Thackeray said. When I asked Fadnavis how a senior leader like him would work under Aaditya, he (Fadnavis) said he would move to Delhi, he added. Thackeray's claim evoked a sharp reaction from Fadnavis, current Deputy Chief Minister in the Mahayuti government of BJP, Shiv Sena led by Eknath Shinde and NCP led by Ajit Pawar, who said Thackeray has "lost his mind". "Uddhav Thackeray has become 'bhramishta' (delirious). He is hallucinating. Initially, he said Amit Shah promised him a chief ministership in some room. Now he says I promised to make his son a CM. To hide one falsehood, another lie is being told," Fadnavis said.He, however, admitted to having told Thackeray that Aaditya should be trained as he will eventually take control of the party (Shiv Sena) one day."Leave alone making him (Aaditya) a chief mnister, I wouldn't make him even a minister. He (Aaditya) became a minister later (when MVA was in power) which landed the Shiv Sena (UBT) in its current situation today," Fadnavis said.

Siddaramaiah Not Committed To Any Party, But...": HD Kumaraswamy

In an exclusive interview with ANI, HD Kumaraswamy, who is contesting for the Mandya Lok Sabha constituency said that the Karnataka chief minister has no control over his cabinet.

New Delhi: Former Karnataka Chief Minister and Janata Dal (Secular) leader HD Kumaraswamy launched scathing attacks on Chief Minister Siddaramaiah and said that the latter is not committed to any party, but to his chair only.

In an exclusive interview with ANI, Kumaraswamy, who is contesting for the Mandya Lok Sabha constituency said that the Karnataka CM has no control over his cabinet."In today's Congress government, Siddaramaiah has no control over his cabinet. After the 2024 election results, Siddaramaih will take whatever decision he wants to continue as the Chief Minister. We know his character. He is the product of the Janata Dal. He is not committed to any party but only to his chair. There is no personal opposition against Siddaramaiah but only politically we criticized him. He developed his political strength through our party but has always said that he wants to finish the JD (S)," he said. Recalling his experiences of working with both the BJP and Congress, the JD(S) leader said that it was a sweet and bitter experience working with these two political parties."I had a good and bad experience aligning with Congress supported Congress and at times, people rejected Congress. Their party got 62 seats and we got 58. As Congress was running the central government, they said that they were not going to give the Chief Minister's post to the JD (S). Ultimately we come together to avoid the BJP in coming to power," HD Kumaraswamy said. He also recalled that after coming to power in 2004, the way Congress treated him was a 'bad experience'."My father wanted to go for fresh elections by giving the support of the JD(S) to the Congress. He met Sonia Gandhi also. At that time, BJP friends requested us even our MLAs put pressure on me to form a new government for a temporary period. I had an alliance with them (BJP) and we formed the government. We ran a good government with the BJP and it was a good experience we had. But after 20 months, when it was decided to hand over the power to Yediyurappa, some people in our party mischiefed to destroy the coalition," he and BJP in previous times. From 2004-2006, we In 2018, Congress friends publicly criticized us during elections and said that JD(S) is the b-team of BJP. But at that time we were fighting against both, the BJP and the Congress," Kumaraswamy

Top INDIA bloc leaders to attend mega 'Ulgulan Nyay' rally in Ranchi

Top leaders of the Opposition INDIA bloc will attend the mega 'Ulgulan (uprising) Nyay' rally in Ranchi today, with the main focus on Arvind Kejriwal and Hemant Soren's arrest by the Enforcement Directorate.

New Delhi: At least 14 leaders of the Posters of INDIA bloc leaders, including Opposition INDIA bloc, including Congress MP Rahul Gandhi and party chief Mallikarjun Kharge, will attend the 'Ulgulan (uprising) Nyay' rally in Ranchi on Sunday. The main focus of the mega event will be on the arrests of Delhi Chief Minister Arvind Kejriwal and former Jharkhand Chief Minister Hemant Soren by the Enforcement Directorate.Some 5 lakh people are likely to attend the rally in Ranchi's Prabhat Tara ground slated to commence at around 3 pm. It has been organised by the Jharkhand Mukti Morcha (JMM) as a joint show of strength amid the Lok Sabha polls.

Sunita Kejriwal and Kalpana Soren, the wives of Arvind Kejriwal and Hemant Soren, are also expected to address the event, along with Punjab Chief Minister Bhagwant Mann, Rashtriya Janata Dal supremo Lalu Prasad Yadav, and National Conference chief Farooq Abdullah.

Sonia Gandhi, Rahul Gandhi, Arvind Kejriwal, Mamata Banerjee, Hemant Soren and his wife Kalpana Soren, have already been put up at the rally

A day before the rally, Jharkhand Chief Minister Champai Soren said, "We need to stop the dictatorship and save our democracy and the constitution. Everyone knows what happened in Jharkhand and Delhi. We will expose the dictatorial approach of the Centre at the mega rally."The Chief Minister also said that they got the people's mandate in the name of Hemant Soren, "but attempts were made to destabilise his government from the beginning, and finally he was sent to jail", PTI news agency reported."Delhi's people also experienced a similar situation. From the dais of Ulgulan rally, we will tell the people of the country about the dictatorship of the Centre," he added.Speaking to the ANI news agency, Shiv Sena (UBT) leader Priyanka Chaturvedi said, "We are together in this fight against BJP's growing autocracy. They are not allowing the opposition to function properly; what they are trying to do is to silence the opposition.""We are seeing a high rate of inflation, joblessness and women not getting a safe environment. In the first phase of the election, not many people, but those who have come out to vote have come out to change these people (BJP), who have been showing this dictatorial tendency," she added.

Meanwhile, CPI(M) General Secretary Sitaram Yechury wrote to Kalpana Soren, saying that he would be unable to attend today's rally due to electionrelated commitments. Firstly, Yechury thanked Kalpana Soren for extending the invitation and said,

"Unfortunately, I am in the midst of the election campaign in Kerala, where voting is scheduled for April 26. You are surely aware of the importance of Kerala for the CPI(M)... Threfore, I will not be able to attend..."In his letter, the CPI(M) General Secretary reiterated that he continued to "denounce the dention of Hemant Soren". "The CPI(M) will resolutely work for the defeat of the BJP in the Lok Sabha elections in cooperation with all the secular democratic parties of the INDIA bloc."However, Jharkhand BJP president Babulal Marandi criticised the Ranchi rally, saying "all those who were against development and Sanatan Dharma are gathering here"."Jharkhand would not have been created if there was no BJP government at the Centre. Former Prime Minister Atal Bihari Vajpayee created the state on November 15, 2000, after the formation of the BJPled NDA government in 1999.

RANCHI I 22 April 2024

Heady cocktail of religion & politics RADHARAO Gracias is a firebrand lawyer in Goa. He speaks his mind whenever the coercion manife.

RADHARAO Gracias is a firebrand lawyer in Goa. He speaks his mind whenever the occasion merits this course. Last week, I received via email a sample of his activism. Radharao, a former MLA, had lambasted local BJP supporters on X (formerly Twitter) for offering people free tickets on a train from Goa to Vailankanni (Tamil Nadu), the passage paid for by 'vested interests'. The pilgrimage to Vailankanni is much sought after by Catholics as some miracle was reported to have occurred in that coastal town in Tamil Nadu in the past. Since I do not believe in miracles, I had not taken the trouble to ascertain what exactly drives the believers to frenzy. But the bulk of our believers do believe in the supernatural. That is the reality.

Radharao's lament is that BJP supporters conceived of a Machiavellian plan to despatch a substantial number of Catholic voters to a destination where they would love to go. The train to Vailankanni from Goa departs every week on Mondays. All the tickets for May 6 were bought, probably by 'vested interests', soon after election dates were announced. Radharao alleged that they were being offered free of charge to Catholic voters to ensure their absence onThis, then, is a new tactic to ensure poll victory. The Roman Catholic Archbishop of Goa, Cardinal Filipe Neri Ferrao, alerted his flock not to travel on May 6 since it was their duty to vote the next day.

Whether diabolical or just plain funny, stories like the one circulated by Radharao are doing the rounds elsewhere in India too. A parrot picked the name of one Thangar Bachan, a PMK candidate, as the winner from the Cuddalore Lok Sabha seat in Tamil Nadu. The DMK government led by CM MK Stalin promptly arrested the owner of the parrot for spreading fake news.

Tribal women in Palghar (Maharashtra) returned to the BJP pracharaks in their area the saris and the shopping bags with Modi's picture that were obviously given to them as inducements, proclaiming that they wanted employment and not these items. The Catholic Archbishop of Idukki in Kerala favoured a public screening of The Kerala Story, which depicts the story of girls from his state who were subjected to 'love jihad'. They were not only converted to Islam but also joined the ISIS in Syria, where their husbands were fighting the 'kafirs'.In a multi-religious country like India, instances of romance between Muslim, Hindu and Christian boys and girls are inevitable. The Sangh Parivar has raised its hackles over such marriages, terming them cases of 'love jihad'. I know of many Muslim women married to Hindu or Christian men. No objections were raised, except perhaps by the parents of the girls. Protests are heard mainly when Hindu girls marry Muslim boys!The induction of the Kerala girls and their Muslim bridegrooms into the outlawed ISIS is, of course, another matter. That is truly sinful. If that wicked angle is not present, love between man and woman should not be interfered with only on the ground that they belong to different religions. Talking of Kerala, AK Antony, a former Congress Chief Minister who later became the Defence Minister, has a son who joined the BJP and is fighting the Lok Sabha elections on the saffron party's ticket. Antony was known for his uprightness and integrity. He publicly announced that he wished for his son's defeat. In a country where politics has become a family profession and where tickets are sought by politicians for their sons or daughters, a father disowning his son is a rare occurrence. But Antony is made of a different timber.Our Prime Minister makes statements against his opponents every day, sometimes more than once or even twice a day. Usually, he accuses them and their parties of corruption. They, in turn, accuse the BJP of the same evil. Here, the party in power is in the driver's seat. It can make it extremely difficult for Opposition parties to collect funds for fighting elections. The BJP is using its pole position quite liberally in its quest for a third term.But the PM has now stepped beyond corruption to territory on which, by law, he is not allowed to enter. Any reference to religion is out of bounds during electioneering. Oblique references are deftly made by politicians like Modi.

Need to review functioning of food & drug regulatory agencies

We are in this mess not because our laws are inadequate or toothless, but because their enforcement by the government is lax.

THE ongoing legal battle in the Supreme Court over misleading claims made in advertisements by Patanjali Ayurved has evoked great interest for several reasons. The SC's insistence on personal and repeated apologies by the Patanjali promoters, Ramdev and Balkrishna, for contempt of court is unprecedented. We are yet to hear the last word in this case, but the proceedings thus far have several important lessons for all concerned — drug manufacturers, regulators, the government and, above all, consumers. At the heart of the case are the Drugs and Magic Remedies (Objectionable Advertisements) Act, 1954, the Drugs and Cosmetics Act, 1940, and the rules made thereunder in 1945. The 1954 law prohibits the advertisement of drugs for some conditions and regulates how certain drugs can be advertised. The diseases for which remedies can't be advertised include cancer, diabetes, infertility, AIDS, obesity, premature ageing, blindness, etc. The law specifically deals with misleading advertisements that claim miracle cures for diseases or make false or exaggerated claims about the effectiveness of certain drugs. Under this law, the Central Government is empowered to take action against those who violate its provisions. The 1940 Act and the rules made thereunder are the primary legislation governing the manufacture, distribution and sale of drugs, cosmetics, medical devices and other related products in India.

Patanjali has been advertising several herbal products that claim to 'cure' a range of diseases and conditions, including diabetes, thyroid-related problems and even cancer. During the Covid-19 pandemic, it launched Coronil, which it claimed could cure the disease. The product was endorsed by Dr Harsh Vardhan, then India's Health Minister. When objections were raised, the marketing claim was changed from 'treatment' to 'management.' While claiming cures for several diseases, Patanjali advertisements also targeted the modern system of medicine, saying that it had no cure for them. This irked not only health activists but also the Indian Medical Association (IMA). The company was dragged to court for the violation of the two drug laws and reprimanded. Yet, it continued with misleading advertisements, in contempt of a court order.

Misleading advertising related to drugs, remedies and health is a major problem, going beyond Patanjali. Newspapers and television channels (during certain time slots) across India are filled with advertisements and sponsored content containing tall claims about cures and treatment for everything, from constipation to heart disease. Online platforms like YouTube, Instagram and Facebook are inundated with such claims from doctors and companies, in complete violation of the law. So-called 'social media influencers' have joined the bandwagon of promoting potentially harmful health products. Though large pharmaceutical companies mostly refrain from direct advertising, they indulge in unethical marketing practices like paid news, sponsorship of medical conferences and gifts for the doctors who prescribe medicines. A few years ago, even the IMA was accused of endorsing certain products without sufficient evidence about their efficacy or addressing the ethical questions involved in doing so.

We are in this mess not because our laws are inadequate or toothless, but because their enforcement by the government is lax, and the regulatory bodies have decided to look the other way. The laws are old and have been amended from time to time, and several committees have looked into their relevance and the need to make the rules more stringent. While the process of change will take its course, there is no reason why the existing provisions cannot be put to the best use. This columnist flagged the claims made by Ramdev about a cure for HIV/AIDS in 2008. Anbumani Ramadoss — a trained medical doctor who was then the health minister got the ministry to serve a notice on Ramdev. But very soon, he did a U-turn and attended a yoga session of Ramdev in Gurugram, where the latter repeated his claim about the HIV/AIDS cure. Brinda Karat, a CPM MP at that time, too, raised the matter of misleading claims with the Uttarakhand Government, but no action was taken. In the present case, the Central and state regulatory agencies delayed action and then acted in cohesion to give Patanjali free rein with its misleading claims. Dr Babu KV, a Kerala-based health and RTI activist who filed a series of complaints against Patanjali, first wrote to the state licensing authority in Uttarakhand, urging action for violation of the 1954 Act. The authority wrote to the company to withdraw the advertisements in question but took no action when Patanjali refused to act, though it had the power to do so. Not only this, the authority gave an escape route to Patanjali. The company was served the notices not under the 1954 Act but under a specific rule of the Drugs and Cosmetics Act, which was sub judice in the Bombay High Court. Patanjali cited the legal case and did not budge. The rule in question was added through an amendment in 2018, and it mandated the pre-approval of advertisements with health claims.

elebrity endorsements and health claims over food products are also a major challenge. In this case, too, the food safety regulator has been sluggish. The advertising of nutraceuticals and food supplements is a problem area that needs urgent attention. Given the changing contours of the media landscape and forms of direct and indirect advertising, we need a comprehensive review of all laws and rules relating to the marketing and advertising of medicines, food products and supplements, including those of the Indian systems of medicine. The law against misleading advertising, claims and celebrity endorsements of harmful products (including surrogate advertising) needs to be very stringent. We should review the functioning of Central and state food and drug regulatory agencies and provide them with adequate resources, authority and independence to effectively monitor and enforce compliance. The Patanjali case is a wake-up call for all the parties concerned. After all, it is directly related to the health and wellbeing of people.

Haryana hospitals

Mismanagement, staff shortage plaque healthcare

THE dire state of facilities at hospitals in Haryana paints a grim picture of a system in desperate need of attention and reform. It is evident from recent reports that the health infrastructure is failing to meet the needs of the public. This negligence not only perpetuates suffering but also erodes trust in the institutions meant to safeguard public health.

The case of the Shri Atal Bihari Vajpayee Medical College and Hospital in Faridabad stands out as a glaring example of inefficiency and mismanagement. Despite substantial investments and the passing of two years since its establishment, the hospital remains largely inactive, failing to offer essential in-patient and emergency services. While outpatient services may be operational, the lack of comprehensive care facilities severely undermines its purpose and renders it incapable of fulfilling its potential as a referral centre. In Rohtak, patients at the PGIMS endure hours-long wait and chaotic scenes due to a severe shortage of medical and paramedical staff. As a result, vulnerable patients are subjected to hardships and delays in receiving even basic medical care. Meanwhile, the scarcity of tuberculosis medicines in Karnal underscores the systemic challenges in drug procurement and distribution. TB patients, already burdened by the challenge of managing a chronic illness, are facing hurdles in their treatment due to the unavailability of essential medicines. Along with compromising individual health outcomes, this jeopardises public health efforts aimed at combating the spread of infectious diseases.

It's time for concerted action to revitalise healthcare in Haryana and ensure that patients have access to quality treatment. Immediate steps must be taken to address staff shortage and ensure timely availability of essential medicines. Additionally, greater accountability and transparency are needed to prevent wastage of public funds and resources.

Pakistan blundered into an unwinnable conflict

At the time of the Partition, the Muslim League had argued that 'India' was a thing of the past and the two 'successor' states should be known as 'Pakistan' and 'Hindustan'.

ON February 20, 1999, then Prime Minister Atal Bihari Vajpayee embarked on a landmark diplomatic visit to Pakistan at the invitation of his Pakistani counterpart, Nawaz Sharif. The next day, the two PMs signed the Lahore Declaration, embodying their shared vision of peace and stability between their countries and of progress and prosperity for their peoples.

The declaration was enthusiastically hailed on both sides of the border, emerging from the shadows of the 1998 nuclear tests that had heightened tensions. Regrettably, the optimism turned out to be illusory. Even as Sharif was greeting Vajpayee at the Wagah border, Pakistani soldiers were crossing the Line of Control (LoC) in the Kargil sector and entrenching themselves on heights like Tololing and Tiger Hill, names that would become ingrained in public memory.

The geography of Kargil, with heights reaching 18,000 ft, posed extraordinary challenges. The war in such extreme conditions was a true test of resilience, and success was achieved because officers and soldiers displayed superhuman tenacity and a willingness to die for the country. After the initial discovery of intrusions on May 3, a bloody battle lasted nearly three months before India declared victory on July 26. The Pakistan army denied involvement in the fighting and refused to acknowledge its fallen men, an ultimate dishonour to their sacrifice. Although limited in scale and geographical spread, the Kargil War prompted a deep strategic analysis in both countries. There was a great deal of debate in Pakistan on the miscalculations that led to the conflict and in India on the national security gaps, including an intelligence failure due to which intrusions went undetected. Looking back, we can now assess how effectively the lessons that were learned have been applied by both countries. Three days after the war, the Indian government constituted the Kargil Review Committee (KRC) to review the events leading to the Pakistani aggression and recommend measures to safeguard national security against armed intrusions. The committee noted that the political, bureaucratic, military and intelligence establishments had developed a vested interest in the status quo. It emphasised the need for a comprehensive review of the national security system, considering the Kargil experience, the ongoing proxy war and the nuclearised security environment.

The Group of Ministers' (GoM) report, which followed the KRC, was arguably the most comprehensive examination of national security issues undertaken in independent India. Four task forces were established to evaluate the intelligence apparatus, internal security, border management and defence management, underscoring the seriousness of the post-war assessment. The two reports led to many changes in the management of national security. The National Technical Research Organisation was formed in 2004 to handle centralised communication and electronic intelligence. The Defence Intelligence Agency was formed to cater to the military's specific intelligence needs. A multi-agency centre was set up to foster better inter-agency information-sharing and coordination.

The defence establishment underwent some restructuring. This included the creation of an Integrated Defence Staff, the founding of the Strategic Forces and Andaman and Nicobar Commands, and the devolution of financial and administrative powers to the three services. The appointment of the Chief of Defence Staff, as recommended by the GoM, was made in 2020.

Some recommendations remain only partially implemented. The GoM had noted: "Multiplicity of forces on the same border has also led to a lack of accountability on the part of the forces. To enforce accountability, the principle of 'one border, one force' may be adopted while considering the deployment of forces at the border." This principle has yet to be applied to the Line of Actual Control with China, where the Indian Army and the Indo-Tibetan Border Police are deployed under different command arrangements.

The GoM pointed out weaknesses such as the absence of a national security doctrine and the lack of commitment of funds to the military beyond the financial year. Other problems that needed to be addressed were greater integration of the service headquarters into the government and jointness in the armed forces. These shortfalls persist. On the Pakistani side, there was much public debate on the Kargil debacle. The war exposed the skewed nature of civil-military relations, where military objectives were framed without political and diplomatic considerations. Nasim Zehra, in her book From Kargil to the Coup, writes that the army gave then PM Sharif the first detailed briefing on the operation on May 17. By this time, soldiers had already occupied positions across the LoC.After the war, the role of the Generals who plotted it should have come under scrutiny. Instead, the Pakistan military sought to shift the blame to the political leadership, and growing distrust finally led to the military coup that ousted Sharif from power in October 1999. The Kargil fiasco brought out forcefully that Pakistan's use of the military option against India carried no gains. Not only would India react with superior force, but the international community would isolate Pakistan over such action. Rather than finding ways to reduce tensions with India, the Pakistan army fell back on the use of terrorists, and violence escalated in Jammu and Kashmir after the war.

Many experts opined that Pakistan should refrain from becoming obsessed with Kashmir and focus on building a strong economy. Shahid Amin, a former Pakistani diplomat, wrote that the country should become ruthlessly realistic about its limitations and priorities. Pakistan's survival must precede everything else.

Nevertheless, the core issues that drove Pakistan into an unwinnable conflict remain largely unaddressed. The military still controls the reins in the country, the rhetoric over Kashmir continues, the economy is in dire straits and state support to terrorist organisations persists. Today, India is a far stronger nation, and a Kargil-type scenario appears unlikely. However, the 1999 conflict revealed a level of recklessness in the Pakistani establishment, and the current state of affairs in that country does little to dispel that impression.

वैश्विक स्तर पर सप्ताहांत पर अमेरिकी क्रूड 0.62 प्रतिशत की तेजी के साथ 83.24 डॉलर प्रति बैरल पर और लंदन ब्रेंट क्रूड चढ़कर 87.29 डॉलर प्रति बैरल पर रहा। देश के चार महानगरों में पेट्रोल और डीजल की कीमत इस

लोन के बाद अब म्यूचुअल फंड और इंश्योरेंस सेगमेंट में दस्तक देगी एंड्रोमेडा

वितरण नेटवर्क एंड्रोमेडा सेल्स एंड डिस्ट्रीब्युशन अब म्यूचुअल फंड और इंश्योरेंस सेगमेंट में भी दस्तक देने जा रही है। इसका ऐलान कंपनी के सह-सीईओ (को-सीईओ) राऊल कपूर ने किया है। इससे पहले दिल्ली में प्रेस वार्ता में राऊल कपूर ने बताया कि एंड्रोमेडा ने पूरे देश में नई शाखाएं खोलकर अपनी उपस्थित को बढ़ाया है। 100 से ज्यादा शहरों और कस्बों में उपस्थित के साथ कंपनी की आगे के लिए भी महत्वाकांक्षी विस्तार योजना है। मार्च 2024 में समाप्त हुए वित्तीय वर्ष में कंपनी ने शाखा नेटवर्क का पिछले

470 शाखाओं तक विस्तार किया है। उन्होंने बताया कि एंड्रोमेडा के लिए एक महत्वपूर्ण उपलब्धि 'वनएन्ड्रो' (OneAndro) एप का लांच रही। इसने ऋगदाताओं (लेंडर्स) और एंड्रो सेल्स टीम के लिए काम काफी आसान किया है, जिसमें एजेंट को ऑन-बोर्ड करने की आसान प्रक्रिया और सभी उत्पाद श्रेणियों में तुरंत संवितरण शामिल हैं। इस पहल का उद्देश्य वित्तीय प्रक्रियाओं को सुचार और ग्राहक के अनुभव को बेहतरीन करना है।

साल के 350 शाखाओं से बढाकर

कपूर ने 25000 से ज्यादा एजेंटों को मैनेज करने के लिए कंपनी के प्रौद्योगिकी पर भरोसे को रेखांकित किया। कंपनी एजेंटों की संख्या भी बढ़ाने पर काम कर रही है।

चूंकि मंहगाई कम रहने की उम्मीद वित्तीय वर्ष 2024 में लगभग 6,927 करोड़ रुपये रहा। इसके सह-सीईओ (को-सीईओ) राऊल 33,918 करोड़ रुपये रहा।

साथ उन्हें वर्तमान वित्तीय वर्ष में बेहतरीन प्रदर्शन का विश्वास है। भविष्य में श्री कपुर को पुरे भारत में एजेंटों की संख्या में वृद्धि, कई उत्पादों में संवितरण में बढ़ोतरी, देश भर में शाखा नेटवर्क के विस्तार और टियर-2 एवं 3 शहरों में सुदृढ़ उपस्थिति की उम्मीद है।

राऊल कपूर के अनुसार, 'ब्याज दरों में 50 आधार अंकों की बढोतरी के बावजूद गृह ऋग की मांग लगातार मजबूत बनी हुई है, ने वित्तीय वर्ष 2023-24 में ऋग वितरण बिजनेस में जबरदस्त वृद्धि दर्ज की है। ऋग वितरण 23व से अधिक बढ़कर 75,397 करोड़ रुपये रहा, जिसमें गृह ऋग (होम लोन) सेगमेंट के शानदार प्रदर्शन का मुख्य योगदान रहा। गृह ऋग सेगमेंट वित्तीय वर्ष 2023 के 27,798 करोड़ के मुकाबले 22त से अधिक बढकर

ऋग (लोन अगेंस्ट प्रॉपर्टी) वितरण लगभग 24,776 करोड़ रुपये रहा, जो पिछले वर्ष के 22,456 करोड के मुकाबले 10.33त ज्यादा है। इसके साथ व्यापार ऋग सेगमेंट में बेहतरीन 32त्न की वृद्धि दर्ज हुई, और वित्तीय वर्ष 2023 के 5,255 करोड़ रुपये की तुलना में बढ़कर

अलावा व्यक्तिगत ऋग और अन्य लोन सेगमेंट में भी उल्लेखनीय वृद्धि देखी गई। वर्ष 1991 में सिटी बैंक के डीएसए (डायरेक्ट सेल्स एसोसिएट) के तौर पर स्थापित हुई एंड्रोमेडा भारत के सबसे बड़े ऋग वितरण फर्म के तौर पर उभरी है। कंपनी के विस्तृत ऋग पोर्टफोलियो में गृह ऋग, संपत्ति पर ऋग, व्यक्तिगत त्रृंश, व्यापार ऋग और अन्य ऋग उत्पाद शामिल हैं। ऋगों के अतिरिक्त एंडोमेडा (अपनी समह कंपनियों के माध्यम से) बीमा और म्युक्चुअल फण्ड वितरण भी करती है। इन कार्यों के जरिए कंपनी का उद्देश्य अपने एजेंटों, कर्मचारियों और ग्राहकों को सभी वित्तीय सेवा उत्पाद एक ही जगह पर उपलब्ध कराना है।

एंड्रोमेडा के लिए गृह ऋग और संपत्ति पर ऋग सबसे ज्यादा आय पैदा करते हैं। एंड्रोमेडा सेल्स एंड डिस्ट्रीब्युशन प्राइवेट लिमिटेड के कपुर के अनसार, ÷ब्याज दरों में 50 आधार अंकों की बढ़ोतरी के बावजूद गृह ऋग की मांग लगातार मजबत बनी हुई है, जिसका मुख्य कारण सकारात्मक आर्थिक परिदृश्य है। साथ ही डिजिटलीकरण, पहले से तेज स्वीकृति, आसान उपलब्धता और लचीलेपन से व्यक्तिगत ऋग की मांग जबरदस्त वृद्धि आई है।

एंड्रोमेडा के ऋग पोर्टफोलियो में वित्तीय वर्ष 2018-19 से वित्तीय वर्ष 2023-24 के बीच पांच गुने की जबरदस्त वृद्धि देखी गई है, और 15,333 करोड़ रुपये की तुलना में 75,397 करोड़ रुपये हो गया है। एक महत्वपूर्ण वृद्धि वित्तीय वर्ष 2023-24 की दूसरी छमाही के दौरान अफोर्डेबल हाउसिंग सेगमेंट में दर्ज हुई, साथ ही वेतनभोगी कर्मचारियों द्वारा बड़ी रकम के व्यक्तिगत ऋग की मांग में भी ऐसी ही

वृद्धि देखी गई।

किया हुआ वादा निभाया।

मोबाइल पर बातें करने या फिर सेल्फी खींचने के हुए स्कूल की ओर चल दियाँ। आँज उसका मन क्लास में नहीं लग रहा था। उसे बस यही इंतजार अपने मोबाइल से तरह-तरह की सेल्फी ले। छुट्टी हो गई। घर पहुंचते ही मेहुल सींधा मां के पास पहुंचा और कहा, 'मां, मेरा मोबाइल कहां है?' मां ने उसकी तरफ देखते हुए कहा, 'पहले कपड़े बदलो और खाना खा लो फिर तुम्हारा मोबाइल भी चल दीं। मेहुल समझ गया कि अगर उसे मोबाइल चाहिए तो मां का कहना मानना ही पड़ेगा। उसने मोबाइल लाकर उसे दे दिया। मोबाइल देखकर उसकी खुशी का ठिकाना नहीं रहा। जाते-जाते मां बाहर न जाए। मेहुल ने मन ही मन सोचा, यह भी कोई बात हुई। घर पर भी कोई सेल्फी लेता है। असली मजा तो बाहर सेल्फी लेने में है। मोहित के डॉगी रॉकी के साथ या फिर राहुल के भैया की का तो अलग ही मजा आएगा। यह सोचकर मेहुल कहा, 'इस दोपहर में कहां जा रहे हो?' मां, मैं मोहित के घर जा रहा हूं, थोड़ी देर में आ जाऊंगा।' मां ने उससे कहा, 'जल्दी आ जाना। शाम को तुम्हारे मामा आने वाले हैं। हम सब उनके साथ बाहर घूमने जाएंगे।' 'पक्का मां, मैं जल्दी आ

जाऊंगा।' यह कहकर मेहुल तेजी से मोहित के घर

अपना नया मोबाइल भी रख लिया। मां ने उसे ऐसा करते हुए देख लिया। उन्होंने उसके बैग से मोबाइल निकालते हुए कहा, 'तुम स्कूल पढ़ने जा रहे हो या लिए।' मां उसकी ओर गुस्से से देखते हुए मोबाइल लिए किचन में चली गईं। मेहुल गुस्से से पैर पटकते था कि कब स्कूल की छुट्टी हो और वह घर जाकर आखिर उसके इंतजार की घड़ी खत्म हुई। स्कूल की तुम्हें मिल जाएगा।' यह कहकर मां किचन की ओर जल्दी से कपडे बदल कर खाना खाया। मां ने उसका ने उसे हिंदायत दे दी कि इस गर्मी में वह छत पर या बाइक पर। सोसाइटी में बने स्वीमिंग पूल पर सेल्फी बाहर जाने लगा। मां ने उसे बाहर जाते हुए देखकर

'मां, रॉकी ने काटा है' मोहित ने कहा। 'ऐसे कैसे काट लिया, सच–सच बात बताओ?' 'मां, मेहुल रॉकी के साथ सेल्फी ले रहा था, तभी पता नहीं इसे क्या हुआ और इसने मेहुल को काट लिया।' 'तुम अपने सेल्फी के मजे में यह भूल गए कि तुम्हारी इन हरकतों से रॉकी को परेशानी हो रही है। उसे जब कुछ समझ नहीं आया होगा तो उसने मेहुल को काटकर अपना गुस्सा जता दिया।' मां ने नाराज होते हुए कहा। डॉक्टर से पट्टी करवाने के बाद मेहुल घर पहुंचा तो उसे इस हालते में देखकर मां एकदम घबरा गईं लेकिन जब असली बात पता चली तो उसे मां की डांट भी खानी पडी। उसे समझ आ गया था कि

काश उसने सेल्फी की बीमारी को अपने सिर पर

चढ़ने नहीं दिया होता तो यह सब नहीं होता।

'मेहुल.ओ.मेहुल। कहां हो तुम?' मां मेहुल को काफी देर से ढूंढ़ रहीं थीं, लेकिन वह कहीं नजर नहीं आ रहा था। जब मेहल उन्हें अपने कमरे में भी नहीं दिखाई दिया तो वह सोच में पड गईं कि इतनी गर्मी में मेहल बिना बताएं कहा गया है। तभी उन्हें ख्याल आया कि एक बार छत पर जाकर भी देख लिया जाए। वैसे इस भरी दोपहर में उन्हें उसके छत पर होने की उम्मीद कम ही थी, लेकिन उनका मन नहीं माना। पर यह क्या! जैसे ही वह छत पर

पहुंचीं तो देखा कि मेहुल छत पर खड़ा अपने नए मोबाइल से सेल्फी खींचने में व्यस्त है! वह सेल्फी में इतना खोया हुआ था कि उसे न तो मां की आवाज सुनाई दे रही थी और न ही उनके छत पर आने का पता था। मां ने उसके करीब जाकर उसकी पीठ पर थप्पड़ मारते हुए कहा, 'यह क्या कर रहे हो तुम इतनी धूप में?' तो वह चौंका। 'कुछ नहीं मां, बस यूं ही।' 'यूं ही क्या?' मां ने गुस्से से उसकी तरफ देखते हुए कहा। 'मां, अपने इस नए

Travis Head got what he wanted: 'Surprised' Jaffer slams DC bowlers after SRH loss

New Delhi. Wasim Jaffer slammed Khaleel Ahmed and DC bowlers for their lacklustre performance after losing to SRH by 67 runs on Saturday in the Indian Premier League (IPL) 2024 match at the Arun Jaitley Stadium in New Delhi. Jaffer said that the Capitals fed Travis Head in his areas of strength and that cost them badly. SRH scored 19 runs from Khaleel's first over and did not look back from there DC introduced Lalit Yaday into the attack in the second over and he leaked 21 runs as SRH raced to 40 for no loss in 2 overs. Jaffer said that Khaleel and the other DC bowlers should have pitched the ball up rather than bowling short. Head made the bowlers pay after he racked up the jointfastest fifty by an SRH batter in IPL history.

Head went on to score 89 runs off 32 balls with 11 fours and 6 sixes as SRH put up a colossal score of 266 for 7 in 20 overs.

DC STARTED VERY BADLY'

'We were surprised by the way Khaleel started bowling short to him. You needed to pitch the ball up and allow it to swing. They just played in his hands, bowling short and giving him the start that he wanted," Jaffer told ESPNcricinfo. "The pitch was so good, Lalit Yadav did not have any help, and it was just hitting from the lengths. They just started very badly and it did not stop after that," he added.Kuldeep Yadav was the pick of the DC bowlers after he finished with figures of 4-0-55-4. In their run-chase, the Capitals were bowled out for 199 in 19.1 overs.DC are placed seventh in the table with 6 points and a net run rate of -0.477. The Capitals will next be up against Shubman Gill's Gujarat on April 24 at the Arun Jaitley Stadium.

"What Is It With SRH?": Sachin Tendulkar After Early DC Prediction Goes Wrong

New Delhi.The Sunrisers Hyderabad once again proved to be one of the strongest teams to beat in the Indian Premier League (IPL) 2024, posting a total of over 260 runs for the third time this season. After SRH set 266/7 on the board, their bowlers also stood up and delivered, restricting Delhi Capitals to just 199, hence winning the match by 67 runs. However, this isn't the result that Indian cricket legend Sachin Tendulkar had hoped for. In a post on social media after Sunrisers' fiery start to the match, Sachin had predicted DC's comeback win. But, the result turned out to be completely different.

The Sunrisers posted 125 runs in the powerplay, a T20 cricket record, leaving the entire cricketing fraternity shell-shocked. Tendulkar, however, still believed in the Rishabh Pant-led side to make a comeback.On X (formerly Twitter), Sachin wrote: In spite of this phenomenal start by @SunRisers, I have a feeling @DelhiCapitals have a good chance to win this game. How many of you agree?"

As the match ended in Hyderabad's favour and Sachin's prediction fell flat, he wrote on X: "What is it with @SunRisers that they've gotten past 260 thrice in this season alone! Today was a game where they completely outclassed @DelhiCapitals. They, of course, batted well thanks to a mind-boggling start by @travishead34 & @IamAbhiSharma4 and a wonderful finish by Shahbaz. And in better than DC, with their variations proving to be very effective. Well played, SRH!"The Sunrisers have already scored 'record' totals of 277 and 287 in the IPL 2024. Their batting unit, especially the likes of Travis Head, Abhishek Sharma and Heinrich Klaasen, have done wonders since the start of the tournament, making the franchise one of the favourites to go the distance.

Pakistan Trounce Depleted New Zealand In Second T20I

New Delhi.Left-armers Shaheen Shah Afridi and Mohammad Amir shared five wickets to rock New Zealand for a paltry 90 before Mohammad Rizwan anchored the chase to help Pakistan win the second Twenty20 clash Saturday in Rawalpindi. Shaheen led the attack with 3-13 while Amir, returning to international cricket after nearly four years, finished with 2-13 as the visitors were bowled out in 18.1 overs after being sent in to bat. Rizwan finished with 45 not out off 34 balls with a six and four boundaries to ensure Pakistan chased down a modest target in 12.1 overs for a seven wicket win and take a 1-0 lead in the five-match series.

The first match, also in Rawalpindi, was washed out after just two deliveries on Thursday.New Zealand did fight back with wickets of Saim Ayub (four), Babar Azam (14) and debutant Usman Khan (seven) but Muhammad Irfan Khan (run-a-ball 18) partnered Rizwan in an unfinished 36-run stand to seal victory. Ayub hit a boundary off the first ball of the innings before giving a return catch to pacer Ben Lister off the next while Azam was stumped off rival skipper Michael Bracewell and Usman bowled by spinner Ish Sodhi. Azam credited his bowling for the kickstart."It's crucial to set the tone in first six overs at this ground," said Azam of the Pindi stadium which saw a packed 16,000 week-end crowd."The way Naseem, Shaheen and Amir bowled was outstanding and helped us get early wickets.

Bracewell lamented batting failure."We didn't score quite enough runs," said Bracewell.
"We were little bit slow to adapt to the surface and put ourselves under pressure in the end. We got a game tomorrow and we need to learn quickly." Earlier Amir -returning to international cricket after nearly four years -- jolted New Zealand in the opening overs. Amir retired abruptly in 2020 after he was dropped from the team, the second break in his career after he was banned for five years in a spot-fixing scandal

Very few are like T Natarajan: Badani lauds 'inspirational' journey of SRH pacer

T Natarajan was on song in SRH's match vs DC on Saturday. In a flat batting deck, Ntarajan's spell of 4-1-19-4 earned high praise from former India cricketer Hemang Badani. Badani narrowly touched on Natarajan's journey and called him inspirational.

New Delhi.SRH defeated DC at the Arun Jaitley Stadium on Saturday, 20 April in the Indian Premier League. In a high-scoring game, T Natarajan bowled a sensational spell of 4-1-19-4 to put a halt to Delhi's counter-attacking batting against the Pat

Cummins side. Former India cricketer and SRH coach Hemang Badani lauded the left-arm seamer, who has fallen off the radar after a sensational rise in Indian cricket a few years ago. In a match where over 450 runs were scored across two innings, Natarajan looked in deft touch, pinning his yorkers into the feet of the DC batters. The yorker made Natarajan famous in the IPL, but the pacer had lost his sheen due to multiple injuries. Badani took to Twitter after the game and lauded the nature of the pacer and said that he flew under the radar because he never talked about himself.

Badani further added that Natarajan came from a difficult place and went through a lot en route his success in the cricketing world"And no one speaks of it.. he wouldn't too.. Few are like him. So proud and happy for him. Only when one speaks to him would they know what he's gone thru. Not my place to speak about it but all I can say is you are an inspiration," Badani wrote on Twitter.

T NATARAJAN'S INSPIRATIONAL

Thangarasu Natarajan, the eldest of five where his father earned a living as a dailywage worker in a saree manufacturing unit and his mother sold snacks at a roadside stall. Growing up in such challenging circumstances, Natarajan and his family faced significant financial hardships, often struggling to afford basic educational supplies like notebooks and pencils for his schooling at a government institution.

Despite these challenges, Natarajan's cricketing journey began with playing tennis ball cricket until he was 20 years old. His life took a significant turn in 2011 when he met Jayaprakash, who would become his mentor and guiding force. Recognising Natarajan's potential, Jayaprakash introduced him to competitive cricket by facilitating his entry into the TNCA 4th division in Chennai. In honour of his mentor, Natarajan donned the shirt name 'JP Nattu' during the IPL 2020, paying tribute to the man who played a pivotal role in his early career.

Natarajan's professional cricket debut came in 2015 when he played his first first-class match. However, his journey faced a setback when he was reported for a suspect bowling action. Undeterred, Natarajan worked diligently with seasoned players from Tamil Nadu to remodel his action, eventually making a successful return to the sport. His breakthrough came in 2016 during the inaugural Tamil Nadu Premier League, where his exceptional skill in delivering yorkers caught the attention of IPL scouts. This exposure led to his acquisition by PBKS in 2017 for Rs. 3 crore, although he only played six games and took two wickets that season. Despite a lukewarm start, his fortunes improved when SRH signed him for Rs. 40 lakh ahead of the 2018 IPL season. Initially, he did not see much play, but a strong performance in the Syed Mushtaq Ali Trophy, where he claimed 13 wickets in 11 matches, paved the way for his return to the IPL spotlight.

Elena Rybakina ends Iga Swiatek's Stuttgart hat-trick bid, Marta Kostyuk into final

New Delhi. World number one Iga Swiatek's bid to win a third successive Stuttgart Open title came to an end in an enthralling 6-3, 4-6, 6-3 semi-final loss to Elena Rybakina on Saturday. Rybakina ended Swiatek's perfect record in Stuttgart by handing the Pole her first defeat in 11 matches at the tournament and the Kazakhstani fourth seed will meet Marta Kostyuk in the final."It was, like always a very tough match and I was fighting for every ball, it was such a close match," Rybakina said.

Swiatek began brightly, breaking serve in the opening game and held to take a 2-0 lead, but 2022 Wimbledon champion Rybakina then won five games in a row, breaking twice, and saw out the first set as she hit four aces along the way. The second set went with serve for the first nine games, with Swiatek saving two break points in the opener and Rybakina hitting a further four aces before Swiatek made the decisive break to take the set and force the decider.

Rybakina threatened early in the third set, with Swiatek saving five break points to hold for a 2-1 lead but Rybakina made the breakthrough to make it 3-2 and hit another ace to save a break point and hold in the next game. At 4-2 down, Swiatek rallied to serve to love and had a break point to level the set, but Rybakina held on and went on to break again to reach the final.

'It was kind of a battle who starts the rally, who starts to dominate, but it's always tough to break against Iga, we push each other and I'm really happy that today I managed to win," Rybakina said.

Kostyuk knocks out Marketa

Unseeded Kostyuk overcame Czech sixth seed Marketa Vondrousova 7-6(2) 6-2. The Ukrainian raced into a 5-1 lead in the first set but Vondrousova fought back to force a tiebreak.Kostyuk regained her composure to dominate the tiebreak and when she again took a 5-1 lead in the second set, this time there was no way back for last year's W i m b l e d o n c h a m p i o n Vondrousova. Rybakina will be contesting her fifth final of the year, having won the Brisbane International and the Abu Dhabi Open. She was runner-up at the Miami and

Pep Guardiola lashes out at FA Cup scheduling after 1-0 win vs Chelsea

New Delhi.Manchester City manager Pep Guardiola lashed out at the FA Cup schedule after his side beat Chelsea 1-0 to reach the final on Saturday, three days after their treble bid was ended by defeat on penalties by Real Madrid in the Champions League A late goal by Bernardo Silva got holders City over the line although they rode their luck against a Chelsea side who were punished for not taking the numerous chances they created. City, who were without fatigued striker Erling Haaland, lacked their usual zip and, despite reaching another final, Guardiola was clearly agitated at his side's lack of recovery time after the heartache of Wednesday's Champions League t's unacceptable to let us play today," Guardiola told the BBC's team of pundits at pitch-side. "It's impossible, for the health of the players. It's not normal. It's unacceptable. 120 minutes, the emotions of Madrid, the way we lose, honestly." I know this country is special (with

Never Want Your Head...": Sunil Gavaskar's Message To Rishabh Pant After SRH Thrashing In IPL 2024

New Delhi. Rishabh Pant looked like a battered man on Saturday. He had every reason to feel so. His team had just been at the receiving of a 67-run thrashing by SunRisers Hyderabad, after conceding 266/7 in 20 at the Arun Jaitley Stadium. DC were all out for 199 as the Pant-led side slumped to its fifth loss in eight games to be placed seventh in the 10-team league. DC have blown hot-and-cold this season so far. With the IPL reaching halfway stage, DC's road to playoffs has become quite tough.

After the loss, Pant said the powerplay, where SRH scored a record 125 with Travis Head and Abhishek Sharma going bonkers, was crucial."I think power play was the difference. We were just catching up throughout the match. That was the massive difference. Hopefully, we will come back with more thought process and clear mindset," said Pant, whose 'homecoming' in Delhi was spoilt by Head and Sharma's 131-run partnership. The DC skipper also said he probably misjudged the dew factor at the Arun Jaitley Stadium and deided to bowl first after winning the toss."The only thought process behind that (deciding to bowl first) was we thought there would be some dew but it didn't come. I thought if we could restrict them to 220-230, we would be in with a chance.

Seeing Rishabh Pant dejected after the loss, Sunil Gavaskar, who was one of the commentators, said: "I never want your head down, there are lots of games. So, keep a smile always".Pant replied: "I will try my SRH bowler Bhuvneshwar Kumar got just one wicket but his restrictive spell in the high-scoring match -- 33 runs in 4 overs -- played a vital role in the easy win."Feeling good. Not among the wickets but the way I want to execute it is happening. Just a matter of time," said the pace-bowling stalwart."When defending those many runs, you either go for plenty or you get wickets. We accepted that we'll go for plenty of runs when defending those many runs, but he plan was to keep executing," he added.Bhuvneshwar praised his fellow pacer T Natarajan's bowling, who was twice on a hattrick in a single over and ended up with superb figures of 4/19 in four overs "Amazing. We know how good he is at yorkers. He keeps working hard, silent guy, goes unnoticed a lot. We know how important he is for Sunrisers," said Bhuvneshwar, adding that he is happy that SRH batting is finally clicking after several years. For so many years, this is the first time our batting is clicking so much. As a bowling unit, happy to take the back seat. They (batters) are ruining us... when we defend 180 or so, it'll feel like less," he said.

the FA Cup) but it's for the health of the players. I don't understand how we survived today.

Guardiola could not fathom why City's game against Chelsea was not scheduled for Sunday rather than Manchester United's semi-final clash with second-tier Coventry City, neither of whom had to play a match in midweek. Talking to reporters later, he praised the mentality of his players. "What they did today is one of the greatest things I have ever seen from a group of players after 120 minutes of football on Wednesday," he said. "I just want to protect my players. It's common sense. I'm not asking for something special or privilege.' The exit to Real ended City's hopes of a second straight treble but Silva's goal ensured they are still very much on course to secure the Premier League/FA Cup double.

We're happy with another final and another chance to win a trophy," Silva, who made amends for his miss in the penalty shootout, said."We've done it throughout the years many times. The way this team reacts to disappointments and defeats is always in the best way. Today again the team showed a lot of

KKR vs RCB, Head-to-Head, Kolkata Pitch Report and Who will win?

New Delhi.RCB will be in for a huge challenge when they face KKR in Match The Knights, on the other hand, lost to No.36 of the Indian Premier League (IPL) on Sunday, April 21 at the Eden Gardens in Kolkata. Faf du Plessis' men are struggling at the bottom of the table with 2 points and a poor net run rate of -1.185. Their bowling has been in the absolute shambles, although their batters have started to show some kind of form. In their previous game, RCB conceded the highest team total of 287 in the IPL against Hyderabad. Dinesh Karthik raced his way to scoring 83 runs, but his efforts went in vain as RCB lost by 25 runs. Virat Kohli is the leading runscorer of IPL 2024 with a hundred against Rajasthan to his name. Skipper Du Plessis KKR vs RCB: Head-to-Head Rajasthan by 2 wickets in their previous game in the City of Joy. RR pulled off the joint-highest successful run-chase in the history of the IPL after Jos Buttler's thunderous 55-ball hundred. Sunil Narine, however, kept growing in stature as cricketer.

Narine hammered his way to his maiden T20 hundred off 49 balls after which he got the crucial wickets of Dhruv Jurel and Rovman Powell. The likes of Phil Salt and Andre Russell have also been in decent enough form for the Men in Gold and Purple.

and Karthik have also looked good in KKR and RCB have faced each other 34 times since they first met back in 2008 at the M Chinnaswamy Stadium. Kolkata have a 20-14 lead over their opponents. At the Eden Gardens, KKR have won 7 out of 4 matches against Bengaluru, while losing only 4. In their previous meeting on March 29, 2024, KKR beat RCB by 7 wickets. After being asked to bat first, RCB scored 182 for the loss of 6 wickets. Kolkata chased down the target with 29 balls left in their innings.

KKR vs RCB: Team News

The Knight Riders may not make any changes to their playing XI despite their loss to the Royals. They would want to stick to their previous combination and give them another chance to make amends. The Challengers, on the other hand, are likely to make a few changes. They might bring in Mohammed Siraj to strengthen their bowling attack. Saurav Chauhan, who has not lived up to the expectations, may be dropped.

Director Lingusamy Accuses

YouTube Channel Of Spreading

he renowned filmmaker and scriptwriter N. Lingusamy has accused a well-known YouTube channel of spreading false news, sparking controversy. The famous director has directed some famous films like Run, Bheemaa, and Paiyaa working with some famous artists in the Tamil Film industry. He also directed Anjaan, starring Suriya, which faced massive criticism. In 2018, he directed Sandakozhi 2, starring Vishal and Keerthy Suresh, but failed to leave a markLingusamy also runs a production house named Thirrupathi Brothers. The production house produced a movie named Uttama Villain in 2015 starring Kamal Haasan but failed to leave its mark at the box office. Recently controversies sparked as the director accused a famous YouTube channel of spreading false and inappropriate information regarding the film.

The renowned director released a statement recently regarding the controversy. He mentioned 'Dear worldwide cinema fans, Greetings from my end. Thirupathi Brothers production company has produced and released various successful movies like Deepavali, Pattalam, Paiyaa, Vazhakku Enn 18/9, Kumki, Vettai, Ivan Veramathiri, Manja Pai, Sathuranga Vettai. #### Not Thalapathy Vijay And Trisha, This Duo Was Director Dharani's First Choice For Ghilli amil cinema boasts a rich history of successful films that leave a lasting impact on audiences. Among these, Ghilli stands out as a timeless classic that continues to offer viewers an exhilarating experience every time they watch it. Ghilli is one of the most successful films of Tamil cinema. The film continues to enthral audiences long after its debut. Released in 2004, Ghilli directed by Dharani, emerged as an action-packed romantic narrative featuring Vijay, Trisha, and Prakash Raj in lead roles. The movie Ghilli portraying Vijay as an action hero gained immense popularity among fans for its compelling storyline, thrilling fight scenes, captivating music, and heartwarming romance.It is a Tamil remake of the Telugu movie Okkadu, featuring Mahesh Babu and directed by Dharani. Interestingly, Ghilli has outperformed the original Okkadu at the box office, earning twice as much. As per reports, before casting Vijay and Trisha for the film Ghilli, the makers offered the role to Vikram as the main lead. Director Dharani, known for his successful films with Vikram like Dhill and Dhool decided to cast him initially.

He even planned to cast actress Jyothika as the female lead. However, both Vikram and Jyothika declined the offer due to prior commitments. As per recent reports, the makers are planning to re-release the film Ghilli tomorrow, April 20.In the film, Vijay portrays a young man striving to make a career in Kabbadi, facing several challenges along the way. While Vijay's role mirrors that of Mahesh Babu's from the original version, the Tamil actor's performance surpasses the original in several key scenes. On the other hand, Trisha played the female lead in Ghilli and was paired up with Vijay for the first time in the film. Trisha's character added more power to the film's story as she drove the film ahead from a certain point. The team up worked well and the duo then was seen together in multiple films.

On the professional front, Divya has worked on popular TV shows such as Sweat and Anand. She played her first female lead role in the romantic movie Madhil Mel Kaadhal. Vebbam filmmaker Anjana Ali Khan directed it. The movie also featured Mukhin Rao, the Bigg Boss Season 3 winner, and Sakshi Agarwal in the lead roles, along with Nizhalgal Ravi, Subbu Panchu, Kasthuri Shankar, and Anuradha Hasan in the supporting roles. The film revolved around two extraordinary people as they fell in love and enjoyed life. A few unexpected events derail their romantic stride. Can they continue to be strong and happy

Deepika Padukone

eepika Padukone had left everyone in awe with her first look as the lady Singham in Singham 3. In Rohit Shetty's latest cop film, she will portray the character Shakti Shetty. As the excitement is mounting regarding the next addition in the supercop franchise, Rohit Shetty has amped everyone's expectations by unveiling yet another swagger look of Deepika Padukone in his latest social media post.aking to his Instagram handle on Friday, Rohit Shetty dropped a still from his upcoming film and it featured Deepika Padukone donning the Khakhi uniform. With a colourful backdrop, Deepika can be seen emulating the famous hand gesture of Ajay Devgn from the first Singham, with sunglasses on. Sharing the same, Rohit Shetty penned the caption, "MY HERO... REEL MEIN BHI AUR REAL MEIN BHI LADY SINGHAM!!! @deepikapadukone."

Deepika has a prominent role in the movie. Back in 2023, Rohit Shetty had said that Singham Again will feature Deepika as one of the heroes. He said said, "She is like one of the heroes and what we are doing with it is that we will go with her story. We will make a film which has only Deepika...it is her story... Like Sooryavanshi, Singham and Simmba, the films had already been made and people knew about them but with Singham Again we are introducing these characters and then we will tell their stories."

The film, featuring Ajay Devgn in the lead role, along with Ranveer Singh, was announced by the director on the first day of Navratri in October last year. Rohit, while unveiling the first look, revealed that Deepika would be essaying the role of the most 'brutal and violent' cop in his cop universe. In the first-look poster, Deepika was seen suited up in a police universe, holding a gun in her hand. The gun was placed in a man's mouth while Deepika had a sinister smile while blood was seen oozing from her forehead and shoulders. Sharing the poster, Rohit had written, "Naari sita ka bhi roop hai aur durga ka bhi... Meet the most brutal and violent officer of our cop universe... Shakti Shetty... My lady Singham... Deepika Padukone."Meanwhile, Deepika Padukone is expecting her first child with actor-husband Ranveer Singh. The two announced their pregnancy in February this year when Deepika shared an adorable poster with "September 2024? written on it. The poster also had children's clothes, toys and balloons as the border. Deepika and Ranveer have been married for over five years now. She will soon be seen alongside Prabhas and Amitabh Bachchan in Kalki 2989 AD.
